

Just Connection

TOOL 6

This is a 'no-agenda get-together'! Not all talk needs to be around work, and not all conversations need to be about deadlines. Getting together to talk about common interests, play games or just have coffee together builds relationships and builds trust. This in turn builds transparency and sound working environments.

Using a trivia type quiz facilitates and celebrates togetherness which can be de-stressing and fun!

This tool can be used in virtual meetings or during face-to-face meetings - all you need is an internet connection...
